

THE DAVIDSON FAMILY

THE DESCENDANTS OF HENRY P. DAVIDSON

of Rye Cove, Scott County, Virginia

Records Assembled by William E. Davidson

1947 - 1954

Mrs. John W. Colburn III(209), John Melvin Davidson(531), Mrs. Walter Bybee (745), Mrs. V. C. Holland(212), Mrs. Aaron Millington(1268), and many others have cooperated in giving information about their own near-of-kin. Mrs. Perry G. Lewis(581) has done an immense amount of work collecting records of the many branches of the James Davidson(100) family, John W. Garwood(325) for the John Sheridan Davidson(107) family.

The records are incomplete, but as full as it is possible to make them without endless further delays. There are probably mistakes, but I have taken all pains to get the record right, and I hope anybody mis-reported will forgive me.

I suggest that each of you supplement his copy by writing up the facts about members of his own family more fully, and by writing down stories of his family line that have been handed down. For clear identification it will be well to use the individual's number with his name. Then some time somebody can take this booklet and your new information and compile an interesting family history. Humorous bits, service record, distinctions, meaningful incidents, achievements, life story should be recorded before those who remember them are gone. I will be glad to act as a repository for material for an enlarged and revised edition.

The cost of printing is borne by John W. Garwood(325), Robert L. Davidson II (1193) and the five sons of Franklin P. Davidson(1108)--Ernest, George, Earl, Frank and Lewis. With their compliments the record is distributed to members of the family down to the great grandchildren of Henry P. Davidson. Not enough copies have been printed to go extensively beyond that in view of large numbers in the next and the next generation. However, anyone else desiring a copy may receive one by special arrangement.

For copies write to Wm. E. Davidson, 308 Magnolia, Hannibal, Missouri.

JOHN NORMAN DAVIDSON(1100)

b. Rye Cove, Scott Co., Va., Dec. 7, 1829, d. Cass Co., Dec. 9, 1904, m. in Scott Co., Oct. 19, 1852, Queen Eliza Kilgore(1101) b. Scott Co., Apr. 6, 1833, d. Cass Co., Apr. 30, 1904, dtr. of Robert "Cape" Kilgore(1102) and Elizabeth(1103). Cape was of Scotch-Irish descent, b. Va., 1811, mig. to northeast Texas before or during the Civil War. At close of the war he rode through to visit Eliza in Boone Co., Mo., and d. there 18 days later, Sept. 27, 1865. Other children of his were Nathan (1104) who mig. to Calif., John(1105) of Texas, and Mary(1106) of Texas. In 1858 John N. and Eliza with their children mig. to Cass Co., Mo., via Louisville and Vincennes. His bro., William, advised him to buy land where Kansas City now spreads, but he thought that land no good.

John served 7 months as Confed. State guard in the winter of 1861-62 and fought at Pea Ridge, but when Gen. Price gave up the fight for Mo., he returned home. Guerilla warfare between jayhawkers and bush-whackers was treacherous in state-line counties. Property was looted, lives taken. Eliza saved the farm wagon by hiding a wheel in the pond. In Sept., 1863, all inhabitants of these counties were ordered to get out within 15 days and turn in all grain and hay. All but 600 of the 10,000 inhabitants of Cass Co. had quickly to pull out. The Grand River neighbors gathered at Hayden's Ford and set off on the eastward trek. Robert Lee Davidson(1110) a frail baby, but not frail in lungs, was known as the squalling baby of the caravan. John N. settled his family on the farm of Solomon Shobe on Little Cedar Creek in Boone Co. There Susie(1111) was born and died. There Cape Kilgore(1102) died. The two were buried there in a primitive Baptist cemetery. Later John N. had a grave-stone made for him but never took it from his Cass Co. home to the grave site. In Oct., 1865, John N. and family with the other exiles returned home, many to find their homes burned, all to find their homesteads gone wild.

In Va. the Davidsons were schooled in Methodism. In Missouri William(900), and Nancy(700), and John N.(1100) all became Baptists, pillars in Grand River Church.

The family of James(100) who mig. later to the Main City neighborhood to Kansas, to Oklahoma and to Idaho, mostly remained Methodists. Soon after coming to Missouri John attended a Baptist meeting in Davenport Grove, and came home saying, "I have found my people." Eliza did not become a Christian until after the War. At 33, mother of five, she was converted in a revival at Grand River under Rev. Shepherdson. John N. was away at the time. When he came home she told him, "John, I have got religion."

John N. and Eliza had Mary Elizabeth(1107), Franklin Pierce(1108), Nancy F.(1109), Robert Lee(1110), Susan(1111), Nellie(1112), Ida May(1113) and Minnie(1114).

Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Davidson(1107) b. Scott Co. Va., Sept. 4, 1853, d. Cass Co., of Scarlet Fever Feb. 14, 1863, buried in Brady cemetery.

Franklin Pierce Davidson(1108) b. Scott Co., Va., Sept. 3, 1855, d. Warrensburg, Mo., May 11, 1935. In his teens he was riding around nights with boys of the neighborhood, and later thought that was sowing wild oats. Rev. A. H. Deane was holding a meeting where Freeman cemetery now stands. Mr. Deane had been a Union soldier, and John N., still scarred by the bitterness of the War and of Order No. 11, would not hear the old Republican. But one afternoon he and Franklin rode over. Riding home both were thoughtful and silent. Finally the father said, "I'm not prejudiced against him any more. I'd give the world if I had a son who could preach like that." Next evening Frank was at the mourners' bench, and that night behind the barn he prayed long for all those boys. Frank heard the call to the ministry when about 20, and educated himself at Kirksville and William Jewell. His first pastorates were in Oregon at Corvallis and Brownsville. In Oregon he spent three years, there at Albany, June 7, 1881, m. 1st Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Holman(1115) b. Ray Co., Mo., Dec. 5, 1861, d. Cass Co., at Chas. Hayden's by Grand River Church, Oct. 18, 1904, dtr. of Wiley Holman(1116) b. Ray Co., Mo., Feb., 1836, d. Albany, Ore., Mar. 1925, and of Martha Williamson(1117) b. Ray Co., Mo., 1838, d. Albany, 1932. Wiley was s. of Wilson Holman(1118) d. 1843, of English descent and wife a Ritchie of French descent. Wilson came from Ky. to Mo., served in Mexican War. Martha Williamson(1117) was dtr. of John N.(1119) who came from Tenn., b. 1809, and Katherine Emmette(1120) b. 1812, Ray Co., Mo. Wiley and family took the Oregon Trail in 1862 and again in 1864, settling near Albany, where he farmed until old age.

Franklin spent many years as a country pastor in Cass Co., Johnson Co., and over the line in Kansas. He was pastor at West Plains, Mo., 1892-06, Chillicothe 1909-14, Savannah 1914-23, Huntsville 1923-28. As a young man he considered being a missionary, and was always a promoter of missions in his churches. He named a son and daughter for missionaries and another son for a notable promoter of William Jewell College. He m. 2nd at Elm, Mo., Nov. 28, 1908, Nellie Katherine Hutchinson(1121) of Elm, Johnson Co., b. Aug. 29, 1867, dtr. of James Edwin "Bud" Hutchinson(1122) and Mary Ann Newman(1123) a sister of Rev.
